(By Associated Press.)
Washington, May 10.—The capital was quick to react to the news of Lieutenant Commander Byrd's flight over the North Pole.

Immediately on convening, the House voted to have Speaker Longworth convey by radio to the flier its appreciation of his feat.

The House Naval committee took separate action along the same lines.
In offering his motion calling for congratulations from the committee, Representative Harrison, Democrat,
Virginia, characterized Byrd as a "heroic spirit." The National Aeronautic Association, of which Byrd is a charter member, sent its congratulations by radio.

New York, May 10.—Lieutenant Commander Richard E. Byrd, United States Navy aviator, flew over the North Pole, Sunday, the New York Times and St. Louis Post Dispatch announced. Commander Byrd, first to accomplish this feat, made the flight in 15 hours and 30 minutes, leaving his base at King's Bay, Spitzbergen, at 12:50 o'clock this morning, Greenwich time, and returning safely at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon. The entire population of King's Bay turned out to welcome the American's return.
Captain Amundsen, Lincoln Ellsworth
and the crew of their airships, Norge,
on which they plan a similar flight, greeted Commander Byrd upon his descend.

Commander Byrd by today's feat demonstrated that wings could do in less than a day what Admiral Perry, discoverer of the North Pole, consumed eight months in negotiating by dog-sled. This also made Byrd's the first of nine expeditions attempting the feat to reach the North Pole this year.
His giant three motored airplane carried him safely over wastes which Amundsen last year pronounced unsafe for airplane flights, and the distance traveled, roughly 1600 miles, was equal to more than a month's mushing
in the Arctic under the most ideal conditions for dog teams.

The flight and return by Commander Byrd, recounted by wireless, were far different both in the act and the transmission of news, from the departure of Admiral Robert E. Peary, from Sydney, July 7, 1908.

Peary hardly had cleared the harbor and was just beginning to fight some of the worst Atlantic ocean storms in the little schooner Roosevelt in the time Byrd consumed in going to and returning from the pole.

The report that Byrd, who last year accompanied MacMillan, into the north, actually had reached the pole before returning to his base, was received with amazement here, as the announced plans for his first flight called only for negotiation of the four hundred miles to Peary Land and return, a total of 800 miles.

This, in itself, was considered a daring feat because of the paucity of landing places in the jagged Arctic ice plains, but the flight of at least 1600 miles involved in a round trip hop to the pole rivaled the most optimistic hopes of observers of this flight.

WAR AND NAVY
SECRETARIES REJOICE

Washington, May 10.—The Secretaries of War and Navy joined in rejoicing at the successful polar flight of Lieutenant Richard E. Byrd.

Expressing delight that a navy man was the first over the pole, Secretary Wilbur, said commander Byrd's accomplishment "is a matter of congratula-tion to him, to his crew and to this country."

U. S. Congress Fears Ses-

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1926, By The Herald)

Washington, May 10.—"After you my dear Gaston," as the French character of a famous cartoon used to say —this expresses the attitude now assumed by the Congress of the United States toward the French Parliament in the matter of approving the recent settlement of war debts made by the American Debt Funding Commission and Senator Henri Benanger, the French envoy.

Cable dispatches from Paris have said the French parliament would wait for action by the American Congress. Now leaders of the House, particularly members of the Ways and Means Committee who are in charge of the legislation say they intend to wait for the French Parliament to act first.

The truth is the American Congress is nearing the end of its session and any debate on the French settlement is bound to be prolonged and might keep Congress here well into the summer with good chances of defeat in the Senate. If the administration waits until the autumn when sentiment will have had a chance to crystallize and when the Congressional elections are out of the way, the chances of a favorable vote would be improved.

Naturally the French Parliamentary leaders who want to get the agreement ratified would like to use as an argument that the American Congress had already approved the proposal. Their experience with the American Congress in the matter of ratifying international agreements has not been a happy one particularly when France took it for granted that the Versailles treaty would be ratified when once it had been signed by the executive branch of the government. There is no doubt, therefore, that a French ministry would have a good argument
if it could say that an agreement which has already been approved by the American Congress deserves ratification by France because it might be doubtful whether another agreement

TRIO IS SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

Killed Man In Bootlegger
Feud

(By Associated Press.)
Pompey, O., May 10.—Richard Rhoades, 29, John Hedrick 30, and John Bryant, 40, the latter a negro, were sentenced to die in the electric chair at the state prison September 2
for the murder of James McCumber.
The slaying was the culmination of a bootlegger feud. It was brought out at the trial of the trio that Bryant had hired Rhoades and Hedrick to kill McCumber to "get him out of the way" when they feared he would inform on them for making liquor.

Counsel for 'Jake' To Plead Guilty To Manslaughter

DOES NOT THINK HIM GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER.

(By Associated Press.)
Troy, O., May 10.—L. H. Shipman, attorney for Jacob Nesbitt, confessed slayer of his wife, said today he will enter a guilty plea to a manslaughter indictment if the grand jury takes such action and if he represents Nesbitt in court. He declined to say what the plea would be if a second degree murder indictment is returned.
"I do not think he is guilty of first degree murder," Shipman said, "but I do think him guilty of manslaughter."

Shipman said he had no intention of "deserting" Nesbitt but said he would gladly yield the case to some one else.

"No case has ever caused the worry and bother that this one has," he said.
"I would gladly get rid of it but I do not want to desert Jake."

"I am acting as Jake's friend," Shipman said, "for I do not even know that he will ask the court to let me defend him after he is indicted."

Orris Slater, Cincinnati detective, while waiting to be called into the grand jury room, said he knew nothing about "these rumors of scandal."
"I did not find anything like that in my investigation," he said.

Shipman today said he had been approached by song writers of the type who capitalize on the Floyd Collins and Shenandoah tragedies for permission to use Jake's name.

They have written a "Nesbitt song" Shipman said. He refused permission for them to use the name of his client.
One line in the song was, "I'll never forget her."

tor Capper, died early today at a hos-

GIGANTIC LIQUOR PLOT IS REVEALED

Accused Principals Now
Under Indictment

Emil Wormser One Of Big Men In Conspiracy

Organization One Of Most Momplet Yet Found

(By Associated Press.)
New York, May 10.—A conspiracy involving the importation of many millions of dollars worth of liquor was revealed today when United States District Attorney Buckner opened a sealed indictment returned last week.

The alleged conspiracy centers in and around Port Chester, N. Y., near the Connecticut line. The accused,
all of whom already are under bail,
on previous charges involving prohibition violation, include Emil Wormser.

The indictment, which officials said uncovered the ramifications of one of the most efficient organizations detected in the importing and smuggling of liquor into the United States, contains five counts. Wormser, who formerly was legitimately engaged in the liquor business, is reported to have been the guarded central figure of the organization. So careful were the principals in working of the alleged conspiracy, according to a statement issued at the district attorney's

WILL NOT EMPLOY
NATIONAL GUARDS
AT BEULAH PARK UNLESS RIOT SHOULD DEVELOP

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, May 10.—Possibility of employing the National Guard to suppress alleged gambling at Beulah Park race track at Grove City is extremely remote.
Governor Donahey today indicated he would not consider such a plan unless actual riot should develop. He does not consider existing conditions at the track as constituting riot.

Attorney General Crabbe expects to confer with the executive sometime today on the situation at Beulah Park and other tracks in the state.

FOREST FIRES IN EASTERN U. S. DO $1,000,000 DAMAGE-ONE DEAD

Flames, Lashed By Stiff Wind, Spread Rapidly Along
Many Sections

(By Associated Press.)
Boston, Mass., May 10.—Forest fires in Eastern states today had claimed at least one life and had caused damage estimated well in excess of $1,000,000.
Serious fires still raged in Virginia and New Jersey. Two serious fires in the Blue Ridge mountains in Virginia and New Jersey had been brought under control, but another on Round Top mountain, near Shenandoah, was sweeping a large area.

Contract Is Tentatively Awarded

CHILLICOTHE ARMORY
BIDS ALSO OPENED

Low Bid For Washington C.
H. Is $44,212

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, May 10.—Bids for the construction of two armories to house National Guard units were opened at the office of Adjutant General Frank Henderson today. In both cases the contracts were tentatively awarded low bidders.

The contract for an armory at Washington C. H. was temporarily awarded to J. A. Houston, of Lancaster, whose bid of $44,212 was low. J.
and E. Williams of Washington C. H. presented the second low bid of $45,- 212.

Houston agreed to have the armory
completed by December 1.

An armory at Chillicothe is to be built at an expense of approximately $85,000.

The Knolz Garden Construction Company of Columbus was the low bidder for this contract with a bid of $85,360. The Knolz Company plans to have this armory completed March 1.

While the Lancaster contractor is low bidder, and on the face of the bids he may be awarded the contract,
it is still possible that in an analysis of the bids the contract may be given to J. and E. Williams of this city, or some other contractor who was among the low bidders.

The Department has 30 days in which to go over bids thoroughly and select the "lowest and best bid", everything considered. Usually the contract is formally awarded within a short time after the bids are open.
It was specifically provided in the contracts that the contractor being awarded the job must be ready to begin work within ten days thereafter,
so that it is possible that actual work on the new armory in this city may begin the latter part of May, or early in June.

In any event only something extraordinary would now prevent the armory being built this year.

Washington, May 10.—The Pennsylvania railroad today asked the Interstate commerce Commission for permission to lease for 99 years the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Detroit Railroad.

The road, which is 793 miles long,
through the ownership of its capital

TROOPS MOBILIZED TO INSURE FOOD IN BRITISH STRIKE

STRIKERS STRENGTHENED BY APPEAL OF HUMOR

BY NEGLEY FARSON
(Special Cable to The Herald and The Chicago Daily News.)

Pontypridd, South Wales, May 10.— Rumor has a delightful appeal to the striking Welsh miners. Crowds of men and women, assembled in the bitter rain, not knowing where their next meal will come from after this pay day, roar with mirth at the witty sallies of their leaders.

"Lord Birkenhead says England must have cheap coal," says the speaker. "Well," says Herbert Smith,
"if he wants cheap coal he has to go down and get it. (Laughter.)
"That's never done a days work in this life."

Positive howls of delight rise from the drenched Welsh miners, who, despite their reverence for the brain power of the present leaders, still believe that sweat and brawn accomplish the only real toil.

Lord Birkenhead told Herbert Smith, head of the miners union, that if the miners agreed to accept the principle of a possible reduction in wages or increase in working hours,
the Government was willing to request the owners to withdraw their lockout notices.

"But Herbert says," explains the speaker, "last ever heard the story of the spider and the fly?"

"He has," says Birkenhead.
"Well," says Smith, "I'm too a fly."

Men, women and even children punmelled each other with mirth.

"You don't get me in the trap with that bit of cheese," carries on the laughing speaker, with charming dis-slaying of William McSwiggin, "hanging prosecutor," Chief of Police Collins

special grand jury tomorrow evidence of "all kinds of violations, involving liquor, beer, gambling and vice un-

Prospects For Peace Are As Dim As Ever

Little Disorder Reported
Over Week-End

"Second Line Of Defence"
Strike Is Feared

(By Associated Press.)
London, May 10.—Concentration of military forces to insure a complete food supply and the lack of prospects for peace marked the seventh day of the British general strike.

The government reported the general situation improved but hints have been made that labor will call on its "second line of defense", which would bring the total strikers to about 5,- 000,000. The trades union congress, however, denied that a decision has been reached to call out the second line of defense.

There was little disorder over the week end, and the only noteworthy disturbance being at Camden Town, where 40 persons required hospital attention. Cardiff and Glasgow, where disorders have been frequent, were quiet.

Transportation and shipping in general were better. The suburban railways provided a skeleton service and the London underground system ran more trains manned by volunteers.

The trade union congress withdrew permits to union members to assist the government in the distribution of food.

Labor leaders claim that displays of heavy armed guards over food convoys were uncalled for and unnecessary and charged that motor buses frequently appear to invite attack.

The government reported a quiet week end with indications from the north that the workers are dissatisfied with the strike.

OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE SAYS EVERYTHING QUIET.

London, May 10.—An official government communique issued tonight says the country is quiet with few disturbances, but where these occured they threatened to become sharper. The police are in full control of the situation.

"While there are many individual cases of strikers in the various trades and services returning to work," it adds, "the general strike as a whole continues unabated throughout the whole country."

"The success of the authorities in maintaining the feeding and vital services of the people must not obscure this grave fact or the increasingly wasteful consequences to all classes."

TAKE ISSUE WITH BRAND OVER ROAD BUILDING CLAIM

FARMERS PAY 21 PERCENT OF MAIN ROADS
INSTEAD OF 66, DECLARES STATE AUTO CLUB

Congressman Charles Brand of Champaign County, who has been quoted throughout Ohio as saying that farmers pay two-thirds of the cost of constructing main roads in the state, has replied to a query written him by the Ohio Automobile Association, and has given entirely different figures for the amount paid by farmers.

"On main roads such as Congress-man Brand mentions the state and federal governments pay half the cost says a statement by the State Auto Club. "There remains only one-half to be paid. Farmers do not pay even that much."

"The letter sent to the congressman by the Ohio State Automobile Association asked him what he meant by the statement. "It is an undisputed fact in the state that two-thirds of the cost of building roads by assessment is paid by the farm population."

He replied, "The statement means that the farmers pay two-thirds of the cost which is collected in the county. On an average in Ohio, the state and the nation together put up one-half the cost, and the balance of the cost is collected with in the county by assessment of one-half against the county at large, part of which is paid by the city or cities in the county, in proportion to their duplicate, and the balance paid by the country people."

"Even these figures are too high, Congressman Brand has offered no proof to substantiate them. The Ohio State Automobile Association attempted to check up his figures in the Highway Department and other state offices, but found figures entirely different. "It was found that farmers pay on the average about 21 percent of the total cost of state road construction. This amounts to 42 percent on the average of the amount collected in the county."

"City and village taxpayers pay on the average about 29 percent of the total cost of building state roads, which would be 58 percent of the amount collected in the county."

"The purpose of the Ohio State Automobile Association in making public this statement is to represent all parties fairly to show that the stirring up of sectional feeling is not justified, and to bring about the co-operation of all Ohio Taxpayers for the building of better highways. In the membership of the association both farm people and city people are well represented."

RADIO IS BENEFICIAL IN THE BRITISH STRIKE

Results Being Watched By Officials Here

BY ROBERT MACK

(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1926)
Washington, May 10.—The use to which radio is being put by the British Government in the time of national emergency are being closely watched by radio officials here.

According to advices reaching Washington the entire facilities of the British Broadcasting company are at the disposal of the Government, and with the staffs of many of the leading British newspapers out on strike, news bulletins and matters of general importance are being broadcast under Governmental supervision.

Such a use of the broadcasting material of a nation presents radio in a new role and one that is expected to be of utmost importance in the event of war. Under legislation now in force in the United States, a similar taking-over of all broadcasting transmitters for government use is authorized, and all the bills introduced in the Senate and House for radio control assign this privilege to the President.

Should the British strike be prolonged, it is predicted that radio will enjoy a tremendous boom in England and that radio receivers will be looked upon as home necessities rather than semi-luxuries.

The broadcasting facilities of practically every important country has been studied as possible agents for Travelling 200,000 miles in thirteen years looking for radio interference and checking up the radio stations in the Third Radio District, is the record of R. Y. Cadmus, veteran radio inspector of the Department of Commerce. Mr. Cadmus recently rounded out his thirteenth year of service and a check of his travels throughout Maryland, Virginia, the District of Columbia, and parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey, revealed an average of approximately 15,000 miles a year. In a recent tour Mr. Cadmus covered 2,700 miles and tuned 1,200 sets in tracing down reported interference from radio receivers.

A NEW STAR IN COLUMBUS SKY

Astronomers at Ohio State University were astonished recently when their telescope revealed a new planet, apparently larger than Jupiter, and alarmingly near the earth.

Further investigation disclosed the fact that the star was merely a new 2,000-watt light on top of the American Insurance Union building, the gigantic skyscraper now under construction at Columbus.

The light, placed at the highest point of the recently completed steel framework, shines 555.5 feet above the heads of theatre crowds on Broad and High Streets. It has been seen by resident of Derby, 25 miles away and Canal Winchester, 16 miles distant from the city.

When the terra cotta facing, which has reached the 13th floor, is completed, a permanent searchlight will replace the temporary light, so powerful that its rays will be visible 75 or 80 miles away.

HE DUNNED MONROE BUT DIPLOMATICALLY

New York, (AP)—When the John Jacob Astor of 1862 decided to dun former President James Monroe for an old loan, he delicately sandwiched his request between congratulations and best wishes.

This is revealed in an autographed Astor letter just sold by the American Art Galleries. Dated in this city, April 28, 1826, and addressed to "Hon. James Monroe," the communication reads:

"Dear Sir: Permit me to congratulate you on your honorable retirement (from Public Life) in which I most sincerely wish you may enjoy that Peace and Tranquility to which you are so justly entitled."

"Without wishing to cause you any inconvenience on account of the loan which I so long since made to you I would be glad if you would put it in a train of settlement if not whole let it be a part with the interest, due."

"I hope Dear Sir that you and Mrs. Monroe enjoy the best of health and that you may live years to witness the Prosperity of the country to which you have so eminently contributed."

RANGE OF 58 DEGREES IN WEEK

SUMMARY OF WEATHER FOR THE PAST WEEK.

The temperature during the week ending 7:00 p. m., May 9, ranged all the way from 31 on the 4th to 89 on the 8th, or a range of 58 degrees between maximum and minimum for the week.

The greatest daily range was 39 degrees—an unusually great range—which occurred on two days—the 5th and 6th.

Mean maximum temperature was 76; mean minimum 44 and mean 60. There was an excess of two degrees during the week.

HUMAN HYPNOTISM IS BEING STUDIED

San Francisco, (AP)—Experiments with insects and animals disclosing that they can be put into a resembling hypnosis by being placed on their backs and prevented from righting themselves has prompted Prof. H. H. Severin of the University of California to investigate the possibility of inducing hypnosis of human beings through posture.

Prof. Severin explaining this method of hypnotizing animals said:

"When an animal is laid on its back the instinct is for it to right itself.

Prevented from doing so, the animal's muscles become tense and it quickly assumes a state paralleling hypnosis. It is devoid of feeling and reacts to only one or two simple impulses. A rabbit, for instance, reacts only to the smell of food. A hen will follow objects with its eyes but otherwise remains motionless.

"The only animals I have found that cannot be thus hypnotized are cats and dogs. They are immune because they have been handled so much by humans."

AT CORN PLANTING TIME, TOO.

"Good Equipment Makes a Good Farmer Better"

When you plant your corn you plan for the greatest possible yield. To get this you must use every available foot of land. You must grow a full hill everywhere a hill is supposed to grow. If your corn planter has passed its most useful days, you cannot do this. Missed hills can easily cost you several hundred bushels each year.

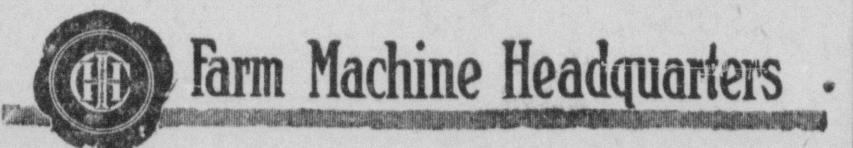

Right now we are ready to show you new, dependable McCormick-Deering Planters that will help you avoid losses from missed hills. Features: Variable drop; edge, flat, or full hill drop plates; automatic markers; power hill drop; all standard widths; fertilizer attachments; and pea and bean attachments. One of these planters can easily pay for itself this year out of the money it saves. Come in and see these planters.

WHIMS OF BUYERS SHOWN AT SALE

New Orleans, (AP)—It may have been rain dampening the ardor of buyers but at an auction of antiques here a Buhl table, declared by the auctioneer to have been the property of Madame de Pompadour, went under the hammer for $90. The auctioneer added that the authenticity of the table had not been questioned since 1764.

The sun was out when the jewelry in the collection was offered and an English ring watch, a tiny watch set in a man's gold ring, brought $166. An inscription in the faded cover of the box told how Prevail, the watchmaker had made it "expressly for King George, the Third."

FARM NOTES

Two hundred and forty-two Darke County farm homes have vegetables the year round by canning and storing the surplus at harvest, following detailed recommendations made by nutrition and garden specialists at the Ohio State University.

Says Sam: "Fisherman, like poets, Izaak Walton used to say, are born, not made."

Montana rural communities have "gopher dances," not to give rodents a chance to frolic, but to raise money to kill ground squirrels.

Only about 65 percent of the pigs farrowed live to reach the market. Greatest mortality occurs during the first 10 days, the Federal Department of Agriculture has found.

Because the soybean will mature in a period as short as 115 days it makes a good emergency crop. Biggest yields, however, experiments at the Ohio State University indicate, come with a longer growing season.

Twelve of Seneca County's twenty-five entrants in the Ohio ton-litter club contests this year are juniors, members of 4-H pig clubs.

"We may say of angling as Dr. Boteler said of strawberries: 'Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did.' And so, if I might be judge, God never did make a more calm quiet, innocent recreation than angling."—Izaak Walton.

The Flight Across the Pole

Lieutenant Commander Byrd, United States navy aviator, flew over the North Pole on Sunday. He was the first to accomplish that feat and it required just fifteen hours and twenty minutes of time.

The intrepid aviator flew away from Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, over vast wastes of ice and open sea, sections of the earth's surface that the eye of man had never beheld unless it was the daring Andre who made the attempt many years ago in a lighter than air balloon and was never heard of after he was started on his journey.

Lieutenant Byrd flew safely over a terrain which explorers have declared impossible to fly over, he made the trip, to the pole and back again in safety to King's Bay in less time than Peary required to clear his vessel from the same harbor and head out to the open Arctic seas some twenty years ago.

A journey that required Peary months to make, on vessel through the ice filled seas and on snow covered land, "mushing" through for months, Byrd made in a few hours.

After Peary had succeeded, undergoing the most terrible hardships, in reaching the pole, the world was so long hearing about it that Doc Cook stole all his glory by claiming he had reached the pole first and when Perry came back with his claims shouting "liar" at Doc Cook there were many who refused to believe him.

Sunday Lieutenant Byrd had scarcely stepped out of his plane when all the world knew that he had succeeded in his endeavor.

We project the human body through space nowadays over distances, in minutes, that formerly required months—we send our words through space now in a fraction of a split second, where formerly it required weeks to get the "word."

The Coolidge "Popularity"

The attitude which he has maintained in regard to several of the hotly contested state primary battles for the senatorial nominations may be helpful to those who have been searching for the cause of the popularity which President Coolidge enjoys, at present, with the great masses of the voters.

President Coolidge never has hesitated to call for the aid of senators and members of the House in urging his program whether of legislative enactment or the annihilation of proposed legislation and has always, thus far, succeeded in getting that help whenever he called for it.

Senators and representatives, finding themselves hard pressed in campaign times, however, have failed, wholly, to enlist the aid of President Coolidge though they have called for help loudly and frequently. In many cases, too, where senators have been hard pressed in the primary elections, the cause of the opposition to them is found, as in the case of Senator McKinley, of Illinois, to be advocacy of the program of President Coolidge.

The White House spokesman has determined upon a hands-off policy in party contests, although he never hesitates to call for aid when he needs it.

It is something new in politics, this attitude of President Coolidge and thus far it has worked admirably to the advantage of the chief executive. So long as President Coolidge is able to rally to his aid, whenever needed, his fellow partisans and able to refrain from extending any help in return, able to avoid taking any stand that will incur opposition, the explanation for the popularity he enjoys is not difficult.

There may come a time though when the several politicians, "bumped" out of politics because they aided President Coolidge, may form the nucleus of an opposition which, growing in numbers by the addition of the disappointed ones, may succeed in turning the tide of popularity into other channels.

RETAIL TRADING SHOWED A LARGE WEEK-END VOLUME

After All Retail Trade Is Nation's Backbone

Three Factor's Combined To Increase Buying

Prosperity, Good Weather and Newspaper Advertising

By J. C. ROYLE

(By Consolidated Press, Copyright 1925)

New York, May 10.—Retail trade, which after all is the backbone of American business, has shown a wonderful volume of sales in most sections of the country in the last ten days, culminating in a flood of buying at the weekend. This has been the result of prosperous business conditions, intensive newspaper advertising and favorable weather which released delayed demand.

In some producing and distributing lines, a certain hesitancy has been noticeable, owing to the great British industrial strike. In others, orders for considerable quantities of goods have been booked by American manufacturers, because British producers could not guarantee delivery. But it is obvious that the commerce and trade of a country like Great Britain can not be tied up without affecting this and other nations.

The strike already has checked wool buying on the Western ranges, because American manufacturers, hope, with England out of the market, to buy more cheaply later.

The cotton growers of the country fear no untoward results, even if British spindles remain idle as long as 30 days. The raw cotton market has shown remarkable strength in the face of the strike news. Bankers in the South hope the strike will help check a tendency of growers to over-plant.

Pig iron and steel production has been unusually stable in most centers. Youngstown, and Cleveland have fallen off slightly but the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company reports unfilled orders 20 percent above the low of the year.

The automobile industry is astonishing even to its closest students. Employment in Detroit fell off 3,242 last week but the total employed is still 10,000 above the level of this date last year.

President Sloan of General Motors announced today that net earnings for the first quarter were $40,644,577 compared with $18,933,489 for the corresponding period of last year, and that stocks on hand today were ultra-conservative. Sales of General Motors dealers to customers totaled 224,616 for the first quarter, an increase of 65 percent compared with last year. The entire automobile industry shipped 1,086,394 cars and trucks in the quarter with 968,086 in 1925.

Increased costs of labor in some centers did not check letting of building contracts, the volume of which is running $25,000,000 a month ahead of last spring. Costs were .04 percent higher than a year ago, power prices for materials compensating for higher wages. Lumber sales, shipments and production increased gratifyingly. Cement men fear possible overproduction later in the year.

Copper and zinc have been dull with no foreign demand to force sales. Tin strengthened on possibility of a shortage due to the English strike. Heavy purchases of silver by India and China forced that metal sharply higher. Lead was quiet.

Sugar was dull, the strike having a quieting effect on prices. American crops still are under sway of weather conditions but harvest is approaching and workers are being gathered for the fields. The banks have commenced to call in funds to finance crop movements and this has had some effect on the money market and business in general.

POETRY FOR TODAY

BOY TRIUMPHANT

Reign proud, Oh, Boy! The throne is yours,
For man, and aught of growth,
In servile gladness seek your doors,
It's pledged with cordial oath.
Reign proud! Yea, Boy! Triumphant reign,
A boy you're once and not again!

Rule wise, Oh Lad! Come, rule these hearts,
Hearts that long since have drunk
The real boy's wiles and charms and arts,
Hearts now in reverence sunk;

In reverence to those real, real boys,
Who turn life's cares to unequalled joys.
Smile wide, Oh, Boy! Spread far your youth;
We'll may we elders, learn
Your text that "Work is play," a truth
To which we all must turn.

Yea, boy, Reign on! Triumphant reign;
"Boy Love" is ever heart's domain!

Nature's Notebook

A STURDY FIGHTER

As youngsters in the schoolyard, all of us, even the girls, had much admiration for the undersized but active boy who thrashed and terrorized the school bully. If he were inclined to be a trifle cocky himself after this feat, we readily forgave him. Thus also do most of us regard the house wren, one of the very few birds that has been able to "put it over" on the English sparrow. There is no denying that he is a bit quarrelsome with other birds as well, but even at his worst he is so much better than the sparrow that we are willing to overlook a few precatilloes.

Part of the wren's strength, however, must lie in the fact that his house is his castle. He likes to build his nest in cavities with openings just large enough to admit his tiny body, but so small as to prevent the sparrow from following him if he judges it strategic to retreat for a time. For this reason builders of wren-houses should take care not to leave the door too large. The standard size is the diameter of a twenty-five cent piece, which can be bored with a one-inch bit.

The wren's devotion to his family is exemplary, but when the children are off his hands both he and his wife show that their morals are absolutely Babylonian. They dissolve partnership at once and re-mate with others, to raise a second brood. They are at the opposite pole, so far as marital fidelity is concerned, from such diverse birds as doves, eagles, and ostriches, which are rigidly monogamous.

HIGH SPOTS IN OHIO HISTORY

(Written by J. H. Galbraith, Columbus, Ohio, historian, and distributed by Associated Press.)

The same neighborhood in Brown county that produced Grant, produced two other men who in a less conspicuous way helped save the Union in the great struggle in which Grant took a prominent part. They were the Ammens, Jacob and Daniel, the first of whom became a general in the army and the latter an admiral in the navy. Jacob was the eldest and Daniel the youngest son of a family of four of David Ammen, who came from Virginia in pioneer days and locating at Lavana, Ohio, began the publication of the first newspaper in Brown county—the "Castigator." He was strongly opposed to slavery and his paper carried the first anti-slavery articles of Rev. John Rankin, the noted director of the underground railway whose terminal was near Ripley.

Later the elder Ammen removed his newspaper, first to Georgetown, and afterwards to Ripley. Probably his prestige as the publisher of a newspaper enabled him to secure for his eldest son an appointment to West Point. Some time after graduation, the young man was detailed when Grant was a cadet student there. He is quoted as saying afterward that Grant would probably not have been able to get through the academy but for the special attention he was able to give to him as the son of an old neighbor back in Brown county.

Daniel was much younger than Jacob and was in fact only one year older than Grant, and as boys they ran in the same "gang" down in Brown county. One day Daniel saved Grant from drowning in their old "swimmin' hole," and Grant repaid him by making him an admiral, among the first acts of his administration when he became president.

General Ammen had retired from the army when the Civil War broke out, but received a commission in the volunteer service in which he gave good account of himself. For a number of years he was at the head of the schools of Ripley, just before the war.

DIVERSIFICATION ESSENTIAL

One other point deserves notice before we leave the subject of restrictions put upon legal investments for savings banks. That is the insistence upon diversification even among securities which presumably are the safest possible.

Take, for instance, the provision laid down regarding electric light and power and gas bonds in the proposed amendment to make these obligations legal in New York State. This was that not more than 15 per cent of the assets of any bank should be loaned on or invested in such gas and electric bonds and not more than 5 per cent of the assets in the bonds of any one company. If it is necessary for a savings bank restricted as it is to investments of the very highest degree to practice diversification it is all the more necessary for an individual investor who allows himself more latitude in his choice of securities to spread out the risk over a wide field, geographically, industrially and among different corporations in the same line of trade.

It is this rule of diversification which is the secret of the success of the British investment trusts. As far as these organizations have prospered in the United States they have followed the English rule. When they have confined themselves to stocks or bonds of different corporations in any one field they have not done as well as when they have invested in securities representing many kinds of business.

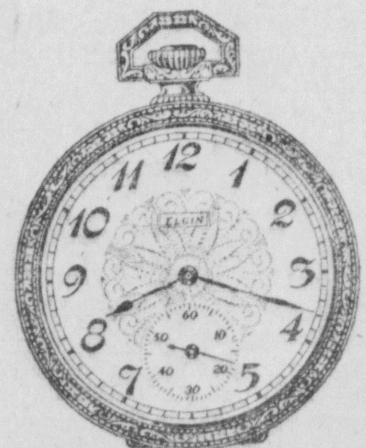

One of the most successful of these American organizations, which has been said are comparatively new in this country, makes it a rule to put not more than 10 per cent of its assets into securities in any distinct class of industry and not more than 134 per cent into any one security other than governmental securities.

It cannot be repeated too often that there is no such thing as absolute safety in any investment. United States Government bonds may be an exception but it would be difficult to find any others. The best insurance is to distribute one's funds over a large variety of stocks and bonds and this notwithstanding that only the most conservative are selected.

Preceding the initiation ceremonies, Saturday night, which welcomed into membership nine young men, Marilyn Thomas, Frank Karney Jr., Thomas Craig, Eugene Emith, Clarence Taylor, James Eichhorn, Jimmie Ireland, Harry Ferguson and Thomas Doyle, the Beta Tau Upsilon fraternity entertained with a banquet at Ye Olde Mill dining room at the Cherry Hotel.

The fraternity members and their pledges were seated at a single long table, down the center of which was a lane of twinkling tapers, green in crystal sticks. Following the elaborate courses of the dinner, Forest W. Smith acted as toastmaster, calling first upon Ralph Childs, who responded with a gay little welcome to the new members. Bernard Orr also spoke briefly of the true fraternal spirit and was answered by Thomas Craig, who in behalf of the pledges, told of their desire to make the fraternity proud of them.

HUNDREDS ATTEND FORMAL OPENING AT CHERRY HOTEL

BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS MUSIC AND SPLENDID CUISINE

With surroundings of exceptional beauty, music and flowers, Ye Olde Mill dining room and coffee shop in the Cherry Hotel was formally thrown open Sunday and was enthusiastically acclaimed by tourists and local folk as the most attractive place modeled on this modern plan in this part of Ohio. The demand of tourists for an a la carte dining room and coffee shop was one of the main factors in leading C. H. Griffiths, manager of the Cherry Hotel, to make this change.

The same excellent management which made Ye Olde Mill tea room popular was evident in both noon and evening dinners, which drew a large number of Washingtonians and also parties from Columbus, Lebanon, Chillicothe, Xenia, Greenfield, Wilmington and near by towns.

Both dining rooms have been beautifully decorated and are colorful and gayly inviting to the last degree. The vivid figuring of the upper wall decorating is set off by the craft-text wainscoting of Veronese green, matched in the draperies, and most effective with the sunset glass curtains. The tables of black with white tops are laid with honey dew doilies, carrying out the color scheme, and in the large dining room in the rear, the lights are of the sunset hue.

Baskets and vases of cut flowers, sent with the compliments of many friends, and the wicker ferneries added a graceful completing touch.

The service was prompt and the dinner courses showed expert culinary skill. A three piece orchestra played delightfully throughout both noon and evening dinner.

HAT, GOWN MATCH IN SUMMER SUIT

BY MME. LISBETH

Central Press Fashion Authority
MATCHING hat and frock is a very popular use of the ensemble idea this spring. In the costume illustrated the frock is a two piece of Chinese red georgette and the large hat of Neapolitan braid is the same shade as the gown.

The costume is an interesting one. The use of panel pleating on the skirt to achieve the uneven hemline adds greatly to its chic. The bodice has long sleeves, a narrow belt of self material placed at the hips, and a tie, also of self material.

The Spanish influence was seen in a number of frocks that were offered as wearable modes at a recent fashion show. These made use of Barcelona prints inspired by Raquel Meller, and were completed by hats in the Spanish manner.

An afternoon frock was of printed chiffon with long fringe to match in belted style, with flowing sleeves and tie collar. The hat was the Spanish sailor type of hair covered with marine, and trimmed with a large rose on the facing of the crown.

A tailored daytime frock combined navy flat crepe with Barcelona print, and featured the long scarf. The hat in this instance was a small shape of navy ballbunt, with a band that repeated the colorings of the print.

The Spanish note is considered an important one if carried out in frocks that are not overdone but that are practical models.

Gay prints, lace and bright colored stitchings are noted in other frocks.

Spanish lace was used in one instance to make the front of the skirt and the lower sleeves.

STATE WILL EXPEND $24,000 UPON BARON STEUBEN HIGHWAY THIS YEAR

TO BEGIN WORK WITHIN A SHORT TIME.

TWO MILES TO BE RE-BUILT DURING 1926.

OTHER NEW STATE HIGHWAY WORK PLANNED.

The new Baron Steuben Highway between this city and the Highland county line, is to be placed in good condition without delay and two miles of the road will be re-built during the present season, under plans announced Monday when Division Engineer G. C. Snyder, of Chillicothe, his assistant, Mr. Higley, and District Superintendent, Clarence Sholey, met the County Commissioners, and plans were made for the work.

At the same time plans were discussed for re-building two miles on the Circleville highway, and making the new fill and constructing the new bridge north of the Pennsylvania railroad just east of Johnson's Crossing, during the present year. However definite action on the Circleville highway has not yet been taken.

The sum of $24,000 has been set aside for the Baron Steuben highway in Fayette county, this year, $12,000 of the amount being appropriated by the County Commissioners, and a similar amount by the state.

It is planned to put a force of men at work on the road without delay, and have the road repaired wherever needed, widening it out some, and then beginning at the point where the New Martinsburg road branches off at Wabash, two miles of the road will be re-built, along lines being followed by the State Highway Department.

Just when the re-building will be started, has not been decided, but probably this will occur during the summer.

Fences along the road are to be ordered back so that a 60 foot road will be provided, and inasmuch as there is no assessment being levied against abutting property owners, it is expected that there will be little delay in complying with the moving back of fences when it is formally issued.

Orders will go out at once, also, for moving fences back along the Circleville highway, so that a 60 foot right-of-way will be available along what once was an 80 foot right-of-way.

When the two miles of road is re-built on the Circleville highway, the work will start at the corporation line of the city and be extended eastward two miles.

It is planned to make the new fill where the road is to be changed at Johnson's Crossing, and allow it to settle until next year, before applying the metal. Also to build the bridge over Compton Creek at a point immediately north of the Pennsylvania railroad bridge.

AMERICAN IS FIRST TO FLY OVER THE POLE

Secretary Davis said that he, like all Americans, rejoiced in "this new triumph of American aviation."

Commander Byrd's feat is not only epoch-making from a technical standpoint, it is a wonderful act of courage. A country with such servants will never fail in a crisis.

FLYER'S MOTHER RECEIVES MESSAGE

Richmond, Va., May 10.—A message from Lieutenant Commander Richard E. Byrd, stating that he had "returned safely" was received here, Sunday afternoon by his brother, Governor Harry Flood Byrd and his mother, Mrs. Richard E. Byrd, Sr. It was interpreted to mean that the aviator had flown over the North Pole and returned to his base. The message was received by Mrs. Byrd as a sort of Mother's Day greeting. "I am proud of Dick," she said. Governor Byrd said "I am tremendously gratified and proud of my brother's success in reaching the Pole."

STRIKERS STRONGER BY APPEAL OF HUMOR

regard for the fly's appetite or for the murdered metaphor.

"I have stayed with a man in Scarborough. He's a fine man. He says the best thing a man can do is fast. He told me the longest time he had gone without food was thirty-two days."

The miners looked puzzled and expectant.

"Well, men, if we told the Government us men would not eat for thirty-two days, the strike would end tomorrow (the crowd is convulsed) and drink nothing but water (the miners now are simply shrieking at the thought of a Welshman drinking nothing but water.)"

And these are people, whose narrow, gloomy horizon on bare hills, pit heads, and yellow smoke, where streams run black with coal dirt, and mean homes are jammed one against another in monotonous, unbecoming rows, like dirty kennels, and whose men get their only glimpse of sunlight as it fades out of the sky.

The miners say the owners claim they can't give more wages, that they can't get more out of the coal industry than is in it. But the miners point to the report of the coal commission, which shows that fifty percent of the mine owners also are interested in huge industries such as the steel industry, which use enormous quantities of coal and quote that part of the report which says such coal is bought at prices 30 percent under the open market.

"Yet they say there is nothing in it," continues the speaker.

"These things stick in the miners' craw. They do not typify the general run of mine owners, who unquestionably desire to give the miners a square deal but they do undermine belief in the necessity for the proposed wage decrease."

Two miners, Jack Morgan and David Jones, look at an enormous board bearing a tiny leaflet on which is printed the owners' notice of the need for decreased wages.

"That's a fine board," says Jack.

"It is," says David.

"I have a good mind to steal that board," says Jack, "and make me a chicken coop."

"Don't be a damn fool man," retorts David, pointing to the notice.

"No chicken would lay eggs under conditions like that."

SANCTION OF DEBT FUNDING IS AVOIDED

could be pushed through Congress.

But it looks as if the French will have to act first after all, and the American Government will then apply the foregoing argument to the American Congress, contending that the agreement having passed the French Parliament it ought to be accepted by the Senate and House here as an act of international goodwill.

Representative Burton has introduced the bill in the House and Mr. Smoot has brought in an identical measure into the Senate. After allowance is made for certain cash payments, the amount of the French debt is fixed at $4,025,000,000 which is computed as follows:

Principal of obligations held for each advanced under liberty bond acts, $2,933,405,070.

Accrued and unpaid interest at four and one quarter percent until December 15, 1922 was $445,066,927. These two items total $3,378,471,997.

Principal of obligations for surplus war supplies purchased on credit $407,341,145.

Interest from last interest payment date prior to December 15, 1922 to that date $6,324,940, making a total of $412,666,085.

Interest from December 15, 1922 minus payments of about $51,000,000 makes the net indebtedness as of June 15, 1925, $4,025,186,686 which is to be funded into bonds and paid over a period of 62 years.

"Cat-Eye Annie" Digs to Freedom From Prison Cell

LEFT OVER 9 YEARS OF TERM BEHIND HER.

(By Associated Press.) Auburn, N. Y., May 10.—Lillian McDowell, known as "Cat-Eye Annie" and by numerous aliases, made a sensational escape from the Auburn prison for women early today, leaving behind her an unexpired term of nine years and six months. Prison officials said her escape was one of the cleverest on record here and that she had been planning it for some time.

The program for escaping was put into effect about a month ago when, by the commission of several minor infractions of the prison rules, she managed to have herself transferred to a punishment cell. There were no other solitary prisoners. Annie evidently obtained some instrument with which she patiently tunneled a hole in the rear of her cell, placing the debris in her mattress.

She was counted present at 4:30 o'clock this morning, but evidently crawled through her tunnel immediately afterward into the prison yard where she went to the green house and obtained a ladder and reached the outside wall.

WOMAN IS KILLED IN SHOT GUN DUEL

Fatal Shooting Follows Argument

(By Associated Press.) Sacramento, Calif., May 10.—Mrs. William Duncan, of Williams, 50 miles northwest of here, is dead, and John Haesch, is seriously wounded and charged with murder as a result of a shot gun duel in the yard of the Duncan home.

The shooting, Mrs. Haesch told officers, followed an argument when Haesch found his wife visiting Mrs. Duncan and ordered her to leave the house. When he attempted to enter the yard Mrs. Duncan told him to "stop or I'll get a shot gun and shoot you," Mrs. Haesch declared. Haesch then left and returned a short time later with the shot gun and as Mrs. Duncan stepped on to her porch with a similar weapon the two drew the range and fired. Mrs. Duncan was struck in the head and Haesch wounded in the stomach.

GIGANTIC LIQUOR PLOT IS UNCOVERED

office that only they knew who the underlings were.

Wormser, an alien, who has lived 20 years in the United States, was described by Government agents as "a millionaire resident of Riverside Drive." His alleged activities consisted in buying and arranging for the shipment of liquor abroad, chartering fleets of motor boats when necessary to facilitate the work and arranging for distribution after landing. He is said to have carefully abstained from appearing personally in any of the operations.

Irving Austin, of Port Chester, a real estate operator and one time president of the Port Chester Chamber of Commerce, was another of those indicted. The Government claims Austin was the local "fixer" whose duty it was to provide safe conduct during the liquor's trip through Port Chester.

WASHINGTON C. H. MERCHANTS GET FIRST TASTE OF VICTORY SUNDAY WHEN PLUMWOOD IS HUMBLING 13 TO 5

Very Few Changes Made In Original Lineup

The Washington Merchants had a fairly easy time disposing of the Plumwood Independents in the game at Sunnyside Park, Sunday, the final score being 13 to 5.

With the exception of the battery and right fielder, the Merchants started the game with the same lineup as commenced the game a week ago, however, Orihood took Moore's place in center field in the last half of the first inning.

Aus Rowe, a local boy, started on the hill for the Merchants and twirled the first five innings. He held the visitors to six scattered hits, two of them rank scratches, and barring an occasional burst of wildness, hurled a nice game of ball. Peters pitched the last four innings, keeping the visitors from crossing the plate and permitting only three hits. Blackburn was behind the plate while Rowe was on the mound with Kellor handling Peters' slants. Ted Vincent, a New Holland youngster, started in right field, but gave way to Burnett in the fourth.

The real feature of the game was the work of "Dutch" Rife, the seven-year old Good Hope lad, who handled four chances on second base in faultless style, while he poled three hits out of four trips to the plate. Terry Lyons, continued his spectacular work on the first sack but could not break into the hit column.

The first inning of the game, Sunday, was a nightmare, the visitors scoring three runs while the locals came right back with seven. After Knapp and Lyons had disposed of R. Murray, Sanford secured a hit when Fannon failed to get up to his slow roller over the third sack. Leahy walked. F. Murray shot a two-py blow to left field that admitted Sanford while Leahy and Murray counted on two successive passed balls by Blackburn.

These three runs loomed big, only for a moment. Rife and Lyons both stroked. Fannon and Briggs singled. Vincent varied the monotony by striking out. Orihood cuffed a double over second. Knapp singled. Blackburn walked. Rowe's grounder to Sanford erased Knapp at home. Rife up for the second time in the inning, singled and Lyons skied to Littler for the final out. All this activity netted the locals seven runs and put them in the lead to stay.

Plumwood added two, to their total in the third via a hit batsman, Knapp's error, a passed ball, an out and Yerian's two-py poke to left field.

The locals got one of these runs back in their half, when Rife's two-bagger shoved Blackburn over from second. The catcher had walked and stolen.

The Merchants were not done scoring however for Knapp's single, a forceout, Rife's single, a wild pitch and a wild throw by Worthington together with four stolen bases including Lyons' theft of home secured them three more tallies in the fifth. Lyons' steal of the place came after Worthington had uncorked a wild pitch. Lyons reached third on the untamed heave, and then seeing that Murray was taking his time recovering the pellet legged it for the plate. He got the decision by a splendid burst of speed and a fine slide.

Fannon's single, a hit batsman, three stolen bases, an error and a passed ball allowed Fannon and Briggs to score the final local runs in the eighth.

Sanford secured a break hit when with two out and R. Murray on first in the second inning, he drove an easy grounder right at Rife. "Dutch" was set for the ball when Murray ran between him and the pellet, the ball hitting the visiting catcher on the foot and bounding into right field. Murray was out for being hit by a batted ball and Sanford was given a hit even though it was the third out and the chance was an easy one. Since Sanford also scratched a hit in the first inning when Fannon was slow in getting up to his twisting boulder in the first inning, he should consider Sunday his lucky day.

SCHEDULED GAME FAILS TO MATERIALIZE

The scheduled game between Sunnyside and Bloomingburg, booked for Begler's field, failed to materialize. The Sunnyside nine had an easy time winning from a peckap team, called Arlington, 21 to 8. The batteries were: Arlington—Maddux and Palmer; Sunnyside—Lucas and Hard.

GOOD HOPE NINE HUMBLING BY MELVIN

The re-organized Good Hope nine traveled to Melvin and dropped a 13 to 9 game to the team at that place. Five Wilmington college men were in the Melvin line-up and the better condition of the Clinton county team gave them the game. Good Hope showed their need of practice, eight runs were scored by Melvin in the first two innings mainly through errors. Every man on the Good Hope nine, except catcher Garringer, was charged with at least one error. Each team secured ten hits. The batteries were: Anderson, Long and Garringer for Good Hope and Beatty, Adams and Zurfur for Melvin.

GREENFIELD LOSES TO ALL-AMERICAN NINE

Lanham, scheduled to pitch for Greenfield, again failed to show up, and Manager Emery was forced to use Heironimus in the box. As a result the strong All-Americans, of Cincinnati, handed the Greenfield team a 9 to 4 wallop, at McArthur Park, Sunday.

MT. STERLING DOWNED BY VOSS FORD NINE

Daugherty, who gave the Washington Athletics some real battles last year, occupied the slab for the Voss Ford, in the game at Mt. Sterling, Sunday, and was in just as good a shape as ever. His splendid pitching together with some heavy hitting by his mates gave the Voss Fords a 12 to 3 victory.

JASPER NINE HAS IDLE SUNDAY

The Jasper nine was unable to secure a game for Sunday and was forced to indulge in another practice session. Good Hope will play at Jasper next Sunday with the Sunnyside nine, of this city, going there, May 23.

CISCO BOYS' NINE WINS FROM GOOD HOPE

The Cisco Boys' nine or the Cisco Giants took a game, featured by much scoring, from a Good Hope Boys' team, Sunday, at Good Hope, by a score of 23 to 18.

BAYLIFFS RALLY TO WIN FROM TRAMPS

The Bowersville Bayliffs came through with a beautiful ninth inning rally in their game with the Springfield Tramps at Bowersville, Sunday, which netted 3 runs and a 4 to 3 victory. The Bayliffs had trailed the Tramps from the first inning. Wells and Haughey was the form of the Bayliff battery.

AMERICAN LEAGUE SETTING FAST PACE FOR MAJOR SLUGGERS

Nationals Have Best In Pitching, However.

Chicago, Ill., May 10.—(AP)—The American League is setting the pace in virtually every department of major baseball.

While the hitting in the American is heavier than in the National games, players in the junior circuit also are showing up better defensively and accepting more chances in the field with more success than are players in the National.

The big exception, and an evident one, is in pitching. Led by Jess Petty, and his brilliant work on the mound for Brooklyn, National League hurlers so far this season have made considerably more impressive showings than pitchers with American clubs.

In slugging, the Yankees continue to top them all with a club batting percentage of .319, having pounded out the most home runs, three baggers and bases generally of any club in either league this year and ranking second to Washington only in base stealing. Chicago has climbed to base standing with a percentage of .297, and the Senators are third with .292.

Chicago's Cubs have shot up to the top in hitting among National teams with an average of .285 and the Giants are second with .280.

Joe Dugan, of the Yankees, has displaced Goslin, of Washington, as the leading hitter in the Majors, with a percentage of .431 after 19 games. The Senator having dropped to second with an average of .406 among players in 15 or more games.

Bob Feller, of the Yankees, has led the slugging in the National with an average of .364, although several players in fewer games show better percentages. Stuffy McInnis, of the Pirates, has averaged .362 in 14 games and Sand, of the Phillies, .358 in 18. Rogers Hornsby hit a slump and is sitting fourth with .353.

Double plays have been more abundant in the American so far, with the St. Louis Browns having doubled 32 plays out to lead but in spite of the speed indicated, more bases have been stolen by American than National players, the Senators proving most deft with a total of 21. Eichel, of the Giants, Mueller, of St. Louis, and Cuyler, of Pittsburgh, finished the third week of the season with five pilfered sacks each in National games with Rice, of Washington, and Bob Meusel, of the Yankees, setting the pace in the American with five apiece.

A large field leads the race for home runs. Babe Ruth having been unsuccessful to date in distancing by much of a margin Williams in his own League and Fournier, of Brooklyn, finished the third week of the season with five circuit drives to the Ruth, Williams, of Philadelphia, and Bottomley, of the Cards, being close behind.

Petty's five winning starts and no games lost leads the pitching achievement for the three weeks just passed. Root, of Chicago, Mitchell, of the Phillies, Meadows, of Pittsburgh, and McGraw, of Brooklyn, showing three winning games and none lost, in the National. Quinn, of the Athletics, and Shocker, of the Yanks looked best among the American fingers, with three victories out of three starts.

Uhl, of Cleveland, and Grove, of Philadelphia, led in strike outs, with their 25 apiece recorded in American games.

Leading National hitters in 15 or more games:

L. Wilson, of Chicago, .364; Sand, of Philadelphia, .358; Hornsby, of St. Louis, .353; Kelly, of New York, .350; Wheat, of Brooklyn, .347; Felix, of Brooklyn, .347; Bressler, of Cincinnati, .346; Leach, of Philadelphia, .343; Curt Walker, of the Reds, .338; Heathcote, of Chicago, .333.

Leading hitters in 15 or more American games:

Dugan, Yankees, .431; Goslin, Washington, .430; Ruth, Yankees, .424; Dykes, Philadelphia, .409; Bassler, of Detroit, .400; Mostil, Chicago, .384; Meusel, Giants, .370; Bennett, of St. Louis, .368; Burns, Cleveland, .366; Center, Athletics, .363.

Two substitutes, Emmer and Dreesen, saved the Reds a shutout at the hands of Philadelphia, Sunday, in a game which the Phillies won, 4 to 1.

Emmer's ninth inning triple, his second and three base blow of the game, was followed by Dreesen's single. Lucas held the Phillies to eight hits while the Reds got nine of Dean, but the Easterners bunched their blows to better advantage.

Bottomley's home run was the high light of the game at St. Louis, Sunday, which the Cards dropped to Brooklyn, 3 to 1.

Chicago Cubs pushed the Reds out of second place in the National League race by winning from New York, 8 to 7, Sunday. Coming into the ninth one run behind, the Cubs rallied and scored two runs. One thousand fans from Kenosha, Wisconsin, were in the stands to honor Al Tyson, New York center fielder who showed his appreciation by getting a triple and three singles in five trips to the rubber.

Ty Cobb, Detroit pilot, hit two home runs and a brace of singles and drew a pass in five trips to the plate in Sunday's game between New York Yankees and Detroit. The Bengals won, 14 to 10. Neun, Detroit first sacker connected for a triple, double and two singles in six times at bat.

This defeat shoved the Yankees out of first place, Washington taking the lead.

Freddy Marberry and utility shortstop Buddy Myer were heroes in the National Capital, Sunday night. Going into the ninth inning trailing the Senators, 3 to 5, the Chicago White Sox had scored two runs, when Marberry went to the relief of the faltering Ferguson. Then with the winding runs on the cushions, Myer made a seemingly impossible stop of a ground ball and with a lightning peg negotiated the third out at first base. Washington won, 6 to 5, to pass New York and go into the lead in the American League pennant scramble.

Thomas, on the mound for Toledo, issued thirteen walks and hit one batter but at that won his game, 15 to 5, his mates pounding four Milwaukee choppers to all points of the horizon.

Maguire and Myers, first and second hitters in the Toledo line-up, secured four hits each.

St. Paul won both ends of a double bill at Louisville, Sunday, taking the first game, 4 to 2, and the aftermath, 11 to 3. Louisville executed a triple play in the second game.

Old Jup Pluvius won the ball game at Indianapolis, Sunday, the Indians and Minneapolis being tied at two all when J.P. kicked over the water bucket in the last half of the sixth inning. Dugan's home run, his eighth of the season, accounted for Minneapolis' two runs.

A wild second inning in which Kansas City tallied seven times while Columbus counted four featured the Sunday game at Neil Park won by Kansas City, 11 to 6. Kansas City set up a somewhat dubious record in the fifth inning when two consecutive batters hit two baggers yet neither one scored. Dumovich was the author of the first two-py wallop. Murray duplicated, but Dumovich was afraid the ball would be caught and when he did get going was caught at the plate. Murray attempted to reach third on the throw-in but was knocked off by Meuter's perfect peg.

Plan for Next European Trials

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 10.—The voice of the public will be carefully considered in making plans for the 1927 International Reception tests, according to Powell Crosley, Jr., chairman of the International Radio Week committee which is already looking forward to next year.

A survey of the public's desires for the tests, made through more than a thousand radio dealers, was submitted today to the committee which has convened here for a week, in conjunction with several other radio trade bodies.

The results of the survey have not been made public, but the committee in charge will bend every effort to give the listeners exactly the kind of international tests they wish to have.

Michigan and elsewhere indicate that when buildings are properly rodded protection from lightning is practically 100 per cent. The Farmers' Mutual Lightning Protection Insurance Company of Michigan, which insured only rodded buildings, and those only after their inspectors had examined and approved the rodding, paid out only $32.00 for damage by lightning during four years on a risk totaling over $55,000,000. The $32 covered three small claims, all due to defects in rodding overlooked by the Company's inspector.

"The prejudice of farmers against lightning rods, which dates from a time when many farmers were hoaxed with improper rodding and unreasonable prices, needs to be overcome. Too few farmers recognize the adequacy of protection from lightning rods properly installed or the danger from rods improperly installed or damaged after installation."

The National Fire Waste Council has authorized the appointment of a balanced agricultural committee which will include in its membership representatives from the Government and other national organizations interested in reducing fire waste on farms.

will increase your earning ability

IT is the red blooded people who win success in this world! Red blood gives men and women the vitality—the energy—the strength and the activity to earn what they deserve!

Nobody can do justice to themselves when they are suffering from want of rich, red blood. It is this impoverished condition of the blood that causes so many failures in life. There's no place at the top for the weakling—the men and women with poor, weak blood.

Build up your blood! Get in the red-blooded class—and get the rewards you deserve. S. S. S. will do it for you! S. S. S. helps Nature build millions of red-blood-cells!

S. S. S. sends rich, red blood tingling to every fibre of your body and every pore of your skin. You are fairly radiant with energy, vim and vitality.

You'll look like success, too! The rich, red blood that S. S. S. helps Nature build for you will clear your skin of any ugly blemishes—your eyes will sparkle with enthusiasm—a firm, solid flesh will round out your figure—strength and power will come to weak, flabby muscles.

All drug stores sell S. S. S. The larger bottle is more economical.
